The Northeast Missouri State Teachers College at Kirksville, is celebrating its 90th year of existence. Founded in 1867, it is one of the oldest state teachers colleges west of the Mississippi River. The school was established by Joseph Baldwin for the primary purpose of educating teachers for the public schools of this state, and still remains dedicated to that purpose. The college has grown from a single frame building with an enrollment of 140 students to its present position of an honored Missouri institution with 15 buildings and over 1700 students. The "ECHO" is proud to recognize the service of this college on its 90th anniversary.

FOREWORD

A college annual is a victor's accolade and a jester's cap. It is a history, a novel, a dictionary, and a photograph album. For its purpose—the capturing of the sight, the smell, the taste of college—for its value—the preservation of memories, friendships, experiences in learning—the annual seals fast with a lid of glass the box containing a school year.

Now established as an instructional division, the library staff, as members of this division, offers course work in library science for school librarians.

The Pickler Memorial Library, named for a former faculty member, has over 125,000 books, including public documents, pamphlets, periodicals, and bound newspapers. The library also houses several special collections, including the Glenn Frank Memorial Library, the Laughlin contribution of research, a Missouriana collection, and a collection of children's literature. Other campus collections of interest are the John R. Kirk Library and the Violette Museum's collection of antiques and souvenirs. Both of these collections are housed in the John R. Kirk Memorial.

The library staff, available for assistance with the resources of the library, provides reference services for the students and faculty.

The Division of Maintenance Service

HOWARD G. MORRIS
Head of the Division of Maintenance Service

BETTY LOU BRADBURY

Panhellenic Council, composed of three representatives from each sorority, is sponsored by Dean of Women, Dr. Pauline Knobbs. All sorority activities are governed by this body.

Helping with Greek Week, sponsoring the Parent's Day Tea, and providing cloak-room service at the dances are some of its activities.

The council sponsors a foreign student each year. The money for this project was made through the sale of student theater tickets.

The council also sponsors a banquet each spring where it awards to the sorority with the highest scholastic average a scholarship cup.

Settling disagreements in and between fraternities and setting the dates for rush and pledge parties are just a few of the functions of the Interfraternity Council.

Another on the program of the council is the Interfraternity Council Banquet. At this banquet, the President's Scholarship Trophy is awarded to the fraternity with the highest honor point ratio.

The council is composed of the Presidents, Vice-Presidents and sponsors of the three Social Fraternities on the campus.

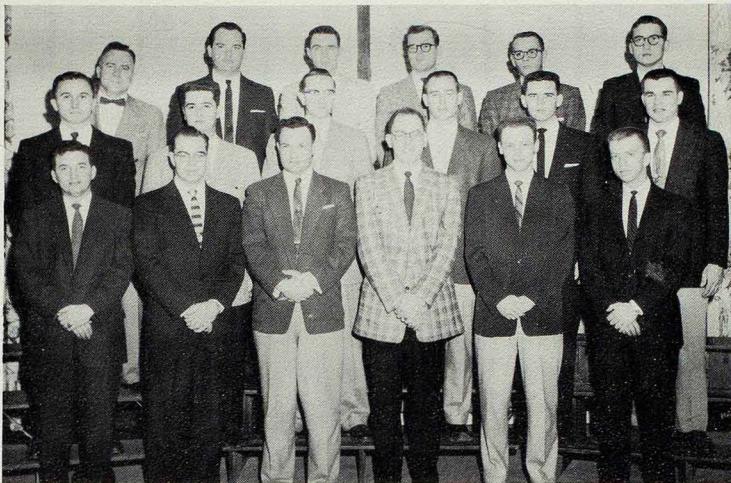

Officers of this year are: President, Gerald Doty; Vice-President, John Gooch; Secy-Treas., Bob Bradley; Sponsor, Gilbert C. Kohlenberg.

Blue Key, the highest men's honor fraternity, is one of the popular service fraternities on campus. Some of the activities in which Blue Key is active are showing the campus attractions to visitors on Parents Day and Senior Day, taking charge of the Homecoming parade, ushering at baccalaureate and commencement exercises, and the biggest service of all, the publishing of the student directory each year.

The organization is limited to twenty men with high scholastic averages, outstanding qualities in character, service and leadership.

The Eugene Fair Chapter of Cardinal Key, Sister organization to Blue Key, is a national honorary service organization for college women. Members are nominated by the chapter and selected by a faculty committee. They are chosen for the qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and participation in school activities. They must also have 60 hours of college credit to be eligible for membership.

Selling Homecoming buttons, doing welfare work, ushering at college and civic functions, conducting tours on Senior Day are some of their activities. This year they offered a scholarship and sponsorship to a Hungarian girl.

Membership in Cardinal Key is held to twenty-five members.

Pi Kappa Sigma Pledges

Activities of the Student Council, governing organization of the student body, are planned for the benefit and enjoyment of the student body. The busy, smooth-running Council this year has brought much pleasure to the students. Political rallies, campaign badges, mud sling, and ballots preceded last year's election which gave us such efficient and hard working council members this year.

Highlighting the activities of the year was the annual Echo Spring Formal Dance, featuring the music of Les Elgart and his orchestra. This dance was planned and executed by this year's Student Council.

FIRST ROW: Dr. Allen, Faculty Sponsor; Judy Moore, Secretary; Warren Dennis, President; Bill Ausmus, Vice-President; Elmo Oestreich, Councilman. This year's dramatists produced two major plays and several one-act plays. Members of the College Players formed the cast for George Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate," a joint undertaking of the College Players and the Music Department, was presented as the spring musical drama.

Three one-act plays; "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets," "Sicilian Limes," and "A Sunny Morning" were directed by student members and presented on February 6 in the Little Theater.

The organization sponsored a special program on January 23 which featured Dr. Betsy Worrell.

"Resolved: That the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries", was the question facing this year's debaters, directed by Sherod Collins.

Bob Shearer, Glen Easterday, Don Noble, Bob Cook, Werner Strick, Jim Miller, Ann Flinchbaugh, and Dianthe Truitt made up the teams that took part in tourneys at Bradley University; in the Midwest Speech Tournament here; at Liberty Union College; at Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg; at the University of Nebraska, at the State Tournament; and at the National Tournament in Brookings, South Dakota.

The Senior Men's team, Bob Shearer and Glen Easterday, who won top ratings at State Tournament, 1956, had experience with another question early in the season. They debated the negative of: "Resolved, that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has outlived its usefulness," in a non-decision battle with Alex Grant and Roy Dickson from Oxford University, Oxford, England.

The Art Club has been very active this year. Working together as a club has helped in knowing all the people in the department better. The club has its regular meeting two times each month, and the type of program and projects has made the group more desirous of improving their creative ability and techniques to improve and understand higher standards.

With the feeling that the Christmas sale of handmade art objects from the members of the group, and the sponsoring of Christmas cards for Mrs. Ballard, The Art Club feels it has had a very successful year, and looks forward to the same projects again next year.

Masonic students may benefit from this club, which was re-organized on this campus last year after a lapse of four years, and is maintained for their benefit.

Opportunity is given to the members to continue their study in the history and philosophy of Masonry under the guidance of the co-sponsors, Richard St. Clair and Charles Elam. This organization is both educational and social in nature.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The organization of the Future Teachers of America Chapter on this campus was perfected in the fall of 1956. This organization is affiliated with the National Education Association, and the Missouri State Teachers Association. Its purpose is to encourage professional growth among the college students who are preparing to teach. The chapter has a membership of approximately 100 students, of which slightly more than half are women. Membership is open to any college student preparing to teach, and having a scholarship honor point ratio of 1.0. The organization has been strongly supported by the Phi Delta Kappa Omicron Chapter on this campus.

Dr. Eli F. Mittler, Head of the Division of Extension Service is the Sponsor of the chapter.

The Wesley Foundation gets bigger and busier every year. Among Wesley's activities this school year was their annual water-melon feed, Christmas party and senior breakfast.

Wesley participated in the Homecoming Parade with a float, put on a Trump Night skit, sponsored two teams in the Intramurals, attended the religious group's skating party, went to State Retreat and various other activities.

The group was kept on its toes by Lorraine Jerome, President; Don Baskett, Vice-President; Betty Ross, Secretary; Carl Baldwin, Treasurer; and twelve other officers.

The Sunday night Meetings formed the nucleus of this group, mixing seriousness with fun and solving many of the students' problems.

Fun, inspiration, fellowship, work and leadership are only a few of the things which B.S.U. offers K.S.T.C. students. The school year started with a Western Roundup party and ended with Spring Retreat in the Ozarks. Other highlights of the year were a hayride, State Convention in Springfield, Mo., a winning Homecoming float, an election night party, and a spring formal banquet.

A big event of the '56-57 year was the purchase of property joining the campus for a Baptist Student Center. The B.S.U. Council headed by Tom Kent, President, met weekly to keep the organization running smoothly.

SEATED: Jeanette Christman, Mrs. Boyd Funk, Sponsor; Erna Winhold. STANDING: Harriet Hammond, John Fiala, Ralph Porter, David Vick, C. E. Grim, Linda Funk.
